THE TIMBER QUEEN
Episode #10
"Human Vultures" ✓

"Human Vultures" is the title of the tenth episode of THE TIMBER QUEEN, with Ruth Roland. Riding recklessly over rough country, the heroine reaches the scene on the Argentine ranch where Don Mackay, trying to escape from his captors, is pursued by a maddened bull. She leaps from her thoroughbred's back to the neck of the bull, grasping its horns and impeding its progress. Admiration sends ranchhands to her own rescue, and gains friends for Ruth and Don. But in further search for Ruth's father, they are lured into a gambling den where their enemies are strong. In an exciting fight with swords Ruth strikes the blow that enables them to get away. They find the cabin where Ruth's father is held, only to be overpowered again.
